The Transport Education and Training Authority (TETA) hereby informs all stakeholders currently utilising the Indicium system of an important update regarding its availability.

Please be advised that the licence for the Indicium system expires on 20 May 2026. As a result, TETA has initiated the necessary handover process, and the system is no longer accessible.

Stakeholders are kindly requested to collaborate closely with TETA during this period and, where applicable, implement established manual processes as interim measures while alternative solutions are being finalised. TETA acknowledges that reliance on manual processes may result in extended turnaround times. However, the Authority remains fully committed to delivering on its mandate and continuing to support the transport sector throughout this transition.

We sincerely appreciate your continued cooperation, understanding, and partnership.

Ms. Mantlwane Kgobe
